Summer 2017

A photograph of a wedding ceremony on a beach. The bride and groom are in the center, facing each other. The bride is wearing a long white gown, and the groom is in a dark suit. They are standing on a small patch of greenery on the sand. In the background, a large group of guests is gathered, some sitting on white chairs. The ocean is visible in the distance under a clear sky. A driftwood structure is used as an altar. The text "2018 Wedding Packages" is overlaid in white on the image.

Junkanoo

Junkanoo is an open-air parade with music, dance and costumes of Akan origin in many towns across the Bahamas; traditionally celebrated on Boxing Day (December 26) and New Year's Day (January 1). The festive tradition has been performed on other celebratory occasions such as weddings. A local Harbour Island junkanoo band is available to perform for weddings for the island-style delight of all in attendance.

Performances include colorful costumes, horns, bells, whistles, drums and much festive dancing to create a highpoint to the wedding evening.

For any wedding couple seeking an authentic Bahamian wedding celebration, a junkanoo is considered an overwhelming must have element.

Island Simplicity to Intimate Weddings

The natural tropical setting of Pink Sands Resort allows for the simplicity of mother nature to provide a variety of elements as décor for an island wedding. The fresh green cocoanuts, the lush greenery of wild sea grape trees and abundant rainbow of color from mature bougainvillea provide the perfect wedding décor to be woven into the framework of an incredible island wedding.

Let the island simplicity of Pink Sands Resort be the endpoint of your intimate wedding.
