Bahamas

Arguably more picturesque is Harbour Island, or “Briland” as locals call it, a three-and-a-half-mile-long pink-sand cay just off Eleuthera. (If you’re coming from Nassau, fly into North Eleuthera Airport; from there, it’s a 5-minute ride by water taxi.) Briland may be small, but it has luxury havens like Pink Sands Resort, Coral Sands, the Dunmore, and the Ocean View Club, not to mention fantastic restaurants (the Landing, the Rock House) and stylish local boutiques (India Hicks, Shine, Blue Rooster).
